

Short Bio

Alma Stana is a full-time lecturer at the Department of Information Technology, Information Technology Faculty, at “Alexander Moisiu” University of Durres, Albania since 2006.

Eng. Alma Stana has graduated in Electronic Engineering at the University of Tirana, Albania. She then pursued graduate studies in Computer Science in the Natural Sciences Faculty, University of Tirana.

Alma Stana is CEO/Founder of SMART CENTER a digital & training company since 1998.

She holds a PhD in Information Systems from University of Tirana since 2013. Her area of research interests concerns the Maritime Information Systems, e-business and smart solutions. She has published several papers in scholarly journals as well as several textbooks. She is the author of a lot of conference articles and books in the field of Information Systems framework. Dr. Eng.Stana investigates among other, the evolution of digital transformation of our economies and societies.